119. During November of 2009, plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, consumed the "Ultimate Power Meal" in accordance with the package directions.

120. During January of 2010, plaintiff's, PATRICIA AMATO, physical condition began deteriorating and he was experiencing nausea, vomiting, mood swings, headaches, severe cramping, and associated pains and fatigue.

121. Plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, was injured.

122. Plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, was seriously injured.

123. The injuries sustained by plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, were caused by the negligence of the defendants in the design, manufacture, testing, inspection, distribution, labeling, selling, advertising, retailing, and development of the "Ultimate Power Meal".

124. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to properly design, manufacture, test, examine, blend, develop, inspect, label, sell, distribute, advertise, and retail the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

125. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to properly mix and/or blend the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

126. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, knew, or should have known that the product was dangerous, and capable of causing severe personal injuries, and possible death to human beings.

127. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to warn of the inherent danger of the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

128. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, improperly mixed the product in that they used an incorrect amount of Vitamin D, i.e. 1,000,000 IU instead of the amount stated on the label, namely 1,000 IU.)

129. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to timely and properly recall the product.

130. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to properly mix, test, inspect and manufacture the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

131. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, knew, or should have known, of the improper mixture of said product.

132. The defendant, GARY NULL, became ill from ingesting said product, in or about November of 2009.

133. The defendant, GARY NULL, suffered a near death experience.

134. The defendant, GARY NULL, eventually notified the codefendants herein of the improper mixture of the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

135. The defendant, GARY NULL, failed to timely notify the co-defendants herein of the improper mixture of the aforesaid "Ultimate Power Meal."

136. The defendant, GARY NULL, failed to notify consumers of the aforesaid product that he was ill due to ingesting same.

137. The defendant, GARY NULL, never notified the plaintiff herein of the dangers of ingesting said product.

138. In a Complaint filed by Gary Null & Associates, Inc. and Gary Null, in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, dated April 26, 2010, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES, INC. and GARY NULL, acknowledge that Gary Null suffered a near death experience as a result of ingesting the aforesaid product.

139. In said Complaint defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that Gary Null performed his own analysis of the product, which proved that the product was improperly mixed, tested, manufactured and placed on the market.

140. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that 1,000,000 units of Vitamin D were placed in each serving of the product, rather than 1,000 units.

141. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that six other consumers were hospitalized with severe kidney damage due to ingesting the aforesaid product.

142. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, allege that Gary Null contacted each consumer who bought the "Ultimate Power Meal."

143. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that the label on the "Ultimate Power Meal" was incorrect and the product was therefore dangerous.

144. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that use of the product could lead to permanent damage to the consumer.

145. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that defendants, ARCHON and TRIARCO, created a product ingredient with full knowledge that it had not been adequately tested and assayed for potency.

146. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that this was a new product and it was given a major promotional effort.

147. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that they notified the defendants, ARCHON and TRIARCO, of the problem, and it took several days before ARCHON was able to determine that the problem was in fact the improper levels of Vitamin D.

148. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that the negligence of the defendants, ARCHON and TRIARCO, led to very serious consequences.

149. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that a toxic batch of the "Ultimate Power Meal" was distributed and led to the serious and perhaps permanent injury to Gary Null.

150. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that defendant, TRIARCO, negligently manufactured, improperly mixed, inadequately tested and distributed the "Ultimate Power Meal", failed to warn of its inherent danger of the product, and failed to provide adequate safety testing for the product.

151. In said Complaint, defendants, GARY NULL & ASSOCIATES and GARY NULL, acknowledge that defendant, TRIARCO, was negligent in the mixing, inspection, testing and manufacture of the "Ultimate Power Meal."

152. Defendants failed to immediately remove the product from the market.

153. Defendants failed to notify consumers of the product that it was inherently dangerous.

154. Defendants failed to immediately recall the product.

155. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, created, distributed, developed, manufactured, sold, retailed, advertised, inspected, and tested a product with full knowledge that it had not been adequately tested and assayed for potency.

156. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to properly create, distribute, develop, manufacture, sell, retail, advertise, inspect, and test the aforesaid product.

157. The defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees, failed to timely and adequately warn users of said product of its dangerous components.

158. The aforesaid injuries to plaintiff caused him bodily pain, mental anguish, economic loss, and severe personal injuries.

159. The aforesaid injuries to plaintiff were caused through no fault or lack of care on his part, and due solely to the negligence of the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees.

160. The limitations on liability set forth in CPLR Section 1601 do not apply by reason of one or more of the exemptions set forth in CPLR Section 1602.

161. Plaintiff has been injured in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter and plaintiff seeks punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION (BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY)

162. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in the First Cause of Action as if fully set forth at length herein.

163. At all times herein mentioned, the defendants each in connection with their business activities as aforementioned, warranted and represented expressly and impliedly that the "Ultimate Power Meal" was fit, capable and suitable for the uses and purposes for which same was intended to be used.

164. At all times herein mentioned, the defendants each in connection with their business activities as aforementioned, warranted and represented expressly and impliedly that the "Ultimate Power Meal" was for its intended uses, and further that same was of merchantable quality.

165. At all times herein mentioned, plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, relied upon the skill and judgment of the defendants and their representations and warranties as aforementioned in connection with the use of said "Ultimate Power Meal".

166. At all times herein mentioned, said representations and warranties were false, misleading and inaccurate in that said "Ultimate Power Meal" and its component parts, when put to the test of actual use, was unsound, unsafe, dangerous, improper and unsuitable for the purposes for which it was intended and utilized, hazardous and defective, and was not of merchantable quality.

167. In or about November of 2009, while so relying upon defendants' skills, representations and warranties, plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO was injured.

168. At all times herein mentioned, defendants were in breach of their express warranty of merchantability.

169. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter and plaintiff seeks punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION (BREACH OF IMPLIED WARRANTY)

170. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in the First and Second Causes of Action as if fully set forth at length herein.

171. At all times herein mentioned, defendants were in breach of their implied warranty or merchantability.

172. In or about November of 2009, while so relying upon defendants' skills, representations and warranties, plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO was injured.

173. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter and plaintiff seeks punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION (STRICT LIABILITY IN TORT)

174. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in the First, Second, and Third Causes of Action as if fully set forth at length herein.

175. At the time of its original manufacture, distribution, and sale, the "Ultimate Power Meal" was in a defective and dangerous condition.

176. At the time of its original manufacture, distribution, and sale by the defendants herein, the "Ultimate Power Meal" was hazardous and not reasonably safe.

177. In or about November of 2009, the "Ultimate Power Meal" was manufactured, distributed, sold, and retailed in a defective condition by the defendants herein.

178. At all times herein mentioned, the "Ultimate Power Meal" was inherently dangerous.

179. Plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO was injured.

180. Plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO was seriously injured.

181. The defects and hazards complained of were substantial factors in causing the injuries sustained by plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO.

182. At the time of the occurrence herein, the "Ultimate Power Meal" was being used for the purposes and in a manner normally intended and reasonably foreseeable.

183. At the time of the occurrence herein, plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO, could not, by the exercise of reasonable care, have discovered the defects herein mentioned and/or perceived their danger.

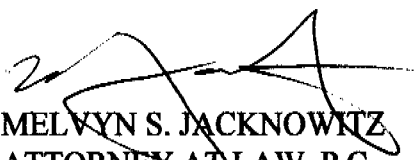

184. Defendants have become strictly liable in tort for the design, marketing, manufacture, inspection, testing, sale, leasing and/or distribution of a defective product, which caused injuries to the plaintiff, PATRICIA AMATO.

185. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiff has been damaged in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter and plaintiff seeks punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment as against the defendants on the First, Second, Third, and Fourth Causes of Action in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter, and plaintiffs seek punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts that would otherwise have jurisdiction over the within matter, all together with interest from the 1st day of November, 2009, together with the costs and disbursements of this action.

VERIFICATION

STATE OF NEW YORK Re: PATRICIA AMATO
) ss:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

MELVYN S. JACKNOWITZ, ESQ., an attorney at law duly admitted to practice in the Courts of the State of New York, affirms under the penalties of perjury that:

I am the attorney of record for the plaintiff in the within action. That I have read the foregoing and know the contents thereof, and, upon information and belief, your affiant believes the matters alleged therein to be true.

The reason this verification is made by affiant and not by plaintiff is that plaintiff resides in a county other than the one in which your affiant maintains his office.

The source of affiant's information and the grounds of his belief are communications with the plaintiff, papers, reports, and investigations contained in the file maintained by my office.
