CRIMINAL NO. 1:05-CR-612-RWS
(First Superseding)

DAN U. BARTOLI, defendant, having received a copy of the above-numbered First Superseding Indictment and having been arraigned, hereby pleads GUILTY to Count(s) Five thereof. The defendant, his counsel, and the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia ("the Government"), as counsel for the United States, subject to approval by the Court, have agreed upon a negotiated plea in this case, the terms of which are as follows:

1. ADMISSION OF GUILT

The defendant admits that he is pleading guilty because he is in fact guilty of the crime(s) charged in Count(s) Five of the First Superseding Indictment.

2. TRIAL RIGHTS

The defendant understands that by pleading guilty, he is giving up the right to plead not guilty and the right to be tried by a jury. At a trial, the defendant would have the right to an attorney, and if the defendant could not afford an attorney, the Court would appoint one to represent the defendant. During the trial, the defendant would be presumed innocent and the Government would have the burden of proving his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant would have the right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against him. If the defendant wished, he could testify on his own behalf and present evidence in his defense, and he could subpoena witnesses to testify on his behalf. If, however, the defendant did not wish to testify, that fact could not be used against him. If the defendant were found guilty after a trial, he would have the right to appeal the conviction. The defendant understands that by pleading guilty, he is giving up all of these rights and there will not be a trial of any kind. The defendant also understands that he ordinarily would have the right to appeal his sentence and, under some circumstances, to attack the sentence in post-conviction proceedings. By entering this Plea Agreement, the defendant may be waiving some or all of those rights to appeal or collaterally attack his sentence, as specified below. Finally, the defendant understands that, to plead guilty, he may have to answer questions posed to him by the Court concerning the rights that he is giving up and the facts of this case, and the defendant's answers, if untruthful, may later be used against him in a prosecution for perjury or false statements.

3. MAXIMUM AND MANDATORY MINIMUM PENALTIES

The defendant understands that, based on his plea of guilty, he will be subject to the following maximum and mandatory minimum penalties:

- (a) Maximum term of imprisonment: ten years incarceration.
- (b) Mandatory minimum term of imprisonment: none.
- (c) Term of supervised release: up to three years.
- (d) Maximum fine: $250,000.
- (e) Full restitution to all victims of the offense(s) and relevant conduct.
- (f) Mandatory special assessment: $100.

The defendant understands that, before imposing sentence in this case, the Court will be required to consider, among other factors, the provisions of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. Ultimately, it is within the Court's discretion to impose a sentence up to and including the statutory maximum. The defendant also understands that no one can predict his exact sentence at this time.

4. DISMISSAL OF COUNTS

The Government agrees that upon the sentencing of the defendant, and with leave of the Court, it will file a dismissal of Counts One through Four and Counts Six through Forty-four of the First Superseding Indictment against him pursuant to Rule 48(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant understands that the Probation Office and the Court may still consider the conduct underlying such dismissed counts in determining relevant conduct under the Sentencing Guidelines.

5. ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY

The Government will recommend that the defendant receive the two-level adjustment for acceptance of responsibility pursuant to Section 3E1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, and the additional one-level adjustment if the offense level is 16 or higher. However, the Government will not be required to recommend acceptance of responsibility if, after entering this Plea Agreement, the defendant engages in conduct inconsistent with accepting responsibility. Thus, by way of example only, should the defendant falsely deny or falsely attempt to minimize his involvement in relevant offense conduct, give conflicting statements about his involvement, fail to pay the special assessment, or participate in additional criminal conduct, including unlawful personal use of a controlled substance, the Government will not be required to recommend acceptance of responsibility.

6. SPECIFIC GUIDELINE RECOMMENDATIONS

Based upon the evidence currently known to the Government, the Government will recommend the following applications of the Sentencing Guidelines:

- (a) The applicable offense guideline is Section 2B1.1.
- (b) The amount of loss resulting from the offense(s) of conviction and all relevant conduct is more than $30,000 but less than $70,000.

(c) Under Section 2B1.1(b)(2)(A)(i), the offense involved 10 or more victims.

7. RESTITUTION

The defendant agrees to pay full restitution to all victims of the offense(s) to which he is pleading guilty and any relevant conduct. The defendant understands that the amount of restitution owed to each victim will be determined at or before sentencing, but agrees that the total of such restitution is no more than $65,995. Should co-defendant Shantha be found guilty or plead guilty to any count on which defendant Bartoli was also indicted, restitution will be joint and several.

8. SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

The defendant understands that the Court will order him to pay a special assessment in the amount of $100.

9. RIGHT TO STATE FACTS/MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS

The Government reserves the right to inform the Court and the Probation Office of all facts and circumstances regarding the defendant and this case, and to respond to any questions from the Court and the Probation Office and to any misstatements of fact or law. Except as expressly stated elsewhere in this Plea Agreement, the Government also reserves the right to make recommendations regarding application of the Sentencing Guidelines.

10. LIMITED WAIVER OF APPEAL

To the maximum extent permitted by federal law, the defendant voluntarily and expressly waives the right to appeal the conviction and sentence and the right to collaterally attack his sentence in any post-conviction proceeding, including a § 2255, on any ground, except that the defendant may file a direct appeal of a sentence higher than the otherwise applicable advisory sentencing guideline range. The defendant understands that this Plea Agreement does not limit the Government's right to appeal, but if the Government appeals the sentence imposed, the defendant may also file a direct appeal of his sentence.

11. DNA WAIVER

The parties agree that no biological evidence (as defined in 18 USC § 3600A) has been identified in this case; therefore, the defendant understands and agrees that no evidence will be preserved for DNA testing.

12. NONBINDING AGREEMENT

The defendant understands and agrees that the recommendations of the Government incorporated within this Plea Agreement or otherwise discussed between the parties are not binding on the Court and that the Court's failure to accept one or more of the recommendations will not constitute grounds to withdraw his guilty plea or to claim a breach of this Plea Agreement.

13. NO OTHER AGREEMENTS

There are no other agreements, promises, representations, or understandings between the defendant and the Government.

In Open Court this 27 day of September, 2007.

I have read the First Superseding Indictment against me and have discussed it with my attorney. I understand the charges and the elements of each charge that the Government would have to prove to convict me at a trial. I have read the foregoing Plea Agreement and have carefully reviewed every part of it with my attorney. I understand the terms and conditions contained in the Plea Agreement, and I voluntarily agree to them. I also have discussed with my attorney the rights I may have to appeal or challenge my sentence, and I understand that the appeal waiver contained in the Plea Agreement will prevent me, with the narrow exceptions stated, from appealing my sentence or challenging my sentence in any post-conviction proceeding. No one has threatened or forced me to plead guilty, and no promises or inducements have been made to me other than those discussed in the Plea Agreement. The discussions between my attorney and the Government toward reaching a negotiated plea in this case took place with my permission. I am fully satisfied with the representation provided to me by my attorney in this case.
